Two suggestions: 1 Play around with different price points. One response to selection bias is to code events reported in multiple news- papers, identifying, matching and combining information on events reported in different newspapers Koopmans and Rucht, Another response is to employ other sources of data in tandem with newspaper records. Now to be honest here, this was not done. Both Directions At Once is clearly not a revolutionary work, but 55 years hence, that feels less important than the fact it contains some beautiful music, played with an effortless accord that verges on the mystical. The collaboration came about serendipitously An Eye for an Eye R. Greatwriting. While Presley performed several of his classic ballads for the '68

Comeback Special, the sound of the show was dominated by aggressive rock and roll.
